Upcoming July Events

- July 7: Donut Eat the Art, 11am-12:30pm
- July 11: DIY Music Makers & Story, 11am-12pm
- July 28: End of Summer Reading Foam Party, 1pm-2:30pm
- July 31: Crafternoon for Adults, 2:30-3:30pm OR 6-7:30pm

A Note from our Board -

Happy 4th of July! We hope you and your family have a safe and happy holiday. There are lots of exciting things happening at the library this month and we can’t wait to have you visit.

Patmos Library Board and Staff have always looked forward to the summer and love hearing all of the great ways our patrons are able to integrate our services into their plans with family, friends and neighbors. You may recognize some of these services if you have been a patron for a while, but here are some of our favorite ways:

- For your family roadtrip: reserve an audio book the whole family can enjoy!
- Stay in touch during a camping trip: don’t forget to bring along a mobile hot spot, available for a week at a time!
- On the way with your kids to a relative’s: bring along a Launchpad for preloaded learning!
- To keep up your minutes for Summer Reading: bring a stack of books for your kids!

We hope your family enjoys a summer of reading and utilizing the Patmos Library resources. Don’t forget to join us for the closing of the Summer Reading program with our Foam Party on Friday, July 28! Happy reading!

- Marcia Frobish,
  Patmos Library Board Treasurer

Staff Member Highlight:
Meet Kylie Luciano, our new Children’s Librarian!

Hello, my name is Kylie! Other than my love for reading, I enjoy spending my time crafting, doing puzzles, and being with my husband and our dog, Duke. My degree is in secondary English education and I love teaching and experiencing life through books and literature. My favorite authors are Elizabeth Acevedo, Oscar Wilde, and Taylor Jenkins Reid.

Kylie’s Favorite Children’s Book: Miss Nelson is Missing by James Marshall

Stay Involved:

- Send us how you’re using your Patmos services to celebrate summer and we’ll feature it on our Facebook page!
- Summer Reading is underway! There is still time for your 0-17 year old to join in the fun until July 28th. Check out the website for more information and follow the Patmos Library Facebook page to get all the latest news.